Kleine Dropdown-Liste, zugeklappt

Kleine Dropdown-Liste, ausgeklappt

Große Dropdown-Liste, zugeklappt

This image shows eight identical large dropdown menus stacked vertically. Each menu consists of a long, empty rectangular text input field on the left and a small, light gray button on the right containing a downward-pointing chevron symbol. The menus are all in a closed state, with no list items visible.

Große Dropdown-Liste, ausgeklappt

This image shows two identical large dropdown menus stacked vertically, both in an open state. Each menu has a long, empty rectangular text input field at the top and a small, light gray button with a downward-pointing chevron symbol on the right. Below the input field, a large, empty rectangular area is expanded, representing the list of options. The list area is currently empty.
